

Name of host(s):

Robert McClure & Mickie Wadsworth

Name of event:

CLICK: SEAMUS 40th Anniversary Edition

Each concert will feature the same setup. CLICK can do 8.1, 5.1, and Quad from one system and Stereo from another system. While we have 10 speakers, they won't be used for diffusion as 10.

Location: Athens, OH.

CLICK is a beginning.

CLICK is an action.

CLICK is an outlier.

CLICK is on purpose.

CONCEPT, and PHYSICAL SPACE:

The "CLICK: Electroacoustic Music at Ohio University" series has been running for 6 years and has already hosted many SEAMUS member composers as well as presented their music. We focus on acousmatic music, music for live performers with electronics, and video. Composers must provide their own performers.

Speakers and configuration:

- 8.1 Centered Double Diamond (will also support 5.1 and quad)
 - Stereo
- (10 speakers in total with two distinct systems + sub)

Number of channels:

2-8

Performance space dimensions:

42ft across by 26ft deep

Date and time of events:

March 2, 2024.

Concert 1 – 1pm

Concert 2 – 6pm

Rehearsal schedule:

Concert 1 – 9am-1230pm

Concert 2 – 230pm-530pm

ATTENDANCE PRAGMATICS:

Best to fly into Columbus and either take Go Bus down to Athens or rent a car. Driving to Athens via Ohio RT 33.

Must a programmed composer attend?

Yes. As such we encourage composers from nearby areas. We really want to focus on the community building aspect of a festival of this sort.

Lodging possibilities:

Several hotels available in Athens including Holiday Inn, Hampton Inn, Fairfield Inn; these are best if the guest has rented a car.

Athens Central Hotel and Ohio University Inn are best if the guest has not rented a car.

Maximum length:

15-minute max

Documentation:

Yes. Audio recording and most likely live stream with stereo mixdown direct from mixer.
